STATEMENT:

Alaska is a young state, where we share hope for a brighter future and a willingness to work to make it come true. I believe Alaska should always be a place to pursue a dream, build a career, enjoy God's bounty - and give something back to this Great Land.

But we risk letting this vision become a lost dream for future generations if we don't work together to keep it alive. That's why I'm running for governor - to keep Alaska a land of opportunity, hope and promise for all Alaskans, just as it's been for Nancy and me and our family.

Instead of resigning ourselves to economic decline and diminished hopes, I believe we must work together to:

- ¥ Face challenges in our fishing, timber and mining industries, and find solutions that fulfill the promise of statehood
- ¥ Build a world-class education system to keep young Alaskans home and attract others here, and build an economy offering them opportunities for rewarding careers
- ¥ Renew, enhance and expand our energy industries
- ¥ Encourage private enterprise and curb our dependence on government largesse
- ¥ Keep all Alaskan families strong, safe and healthy
- ¥ Abandon divisiveness, address subsistence and rebuild a united Alaska

While I'm honored to have served Alaskans for 22 years as U.S. Senator, I believe I can now do more to help us achieve these goals as governor. I ask for your support, so that together we can meet our challenges and renew the Alaska dream for a new century.
